My House, My Home Our Community Poster Contest

Hampton Roads Housing Consortium (HRHC) announces the first ever “My House, My Home, Our Community” Poster Contest. Students living on Hampton Roads’ Peninsula are invited to use their artistic creativity to produce a poster depicting their idea of house, home and community.

The three winners and their entries will be displayed during the 11th Annual HRHC Award Celebration on Thursday, October 12, 2017 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, Hampton, VA.

Open to Peninsula Elementary (K-5) students. Three winners will receive:

- First - $100.00
- Second Place - $75.00
- Third Place - $50.00

Contest Rules

Contestants are asked to use their creativity to present their idea of house, home and community using crayons, pencils, markers, or paint on poster board media size up to 24"x36".

Entries should have a label on the back with the name and grade level of the artist, and be accompanied with a statement (no more than one page) from the artist describing the artwork and how it captures the HRHC's mission.

All entries become property of HRHC and may be used for future event marketing and displays, with credit given to the artist.

Judging Criteria

Entries will be judged on creativity, composition and the artist's statement.

About The Hampton Roads Housing Consortium

HRHC is a voluntary association of governmental, private and non-profit organizations and individuals committed to improving affordable housing opportunities in the Hampton Roads. The HRHC actively promotes and facilitates excellent and affordable housing opportunities.

HRHC is focused on improving the Hampton Roads community through homeownership. As such, the HRHC believes that households of all income levels deserve a fair opportunity to purchase or rent housing that is safe, affordable and suitable for their needs in which to establish a home.

The HRHC also supports housing for vulnerable populations including people with disabilities, the elderly and the homeless.

Entries must be received by 3:00pm Friday, September 22, 2017.
